The 2011-2012 school year is yet another historical year for Hancock High School. With a new addition of fearless FRESHMEN, as well as the spirited SOPHOMORES, Jiggy JUNIORS and Hancock's Stellar SENIORS,

HHS will now start our journey with

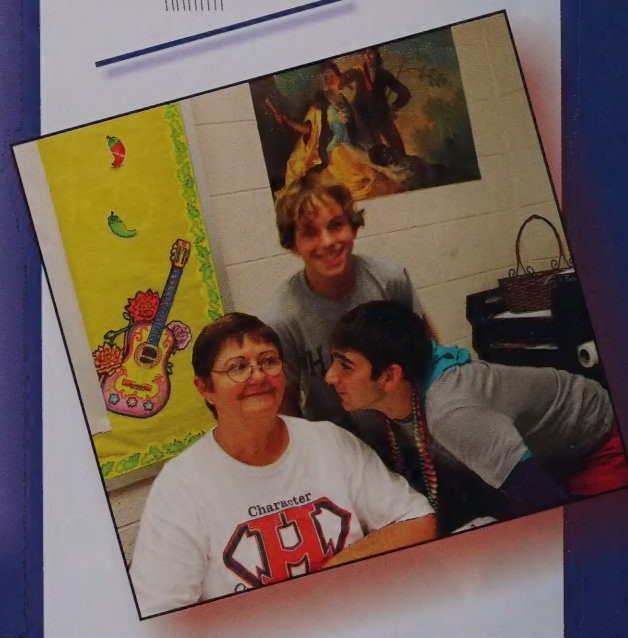

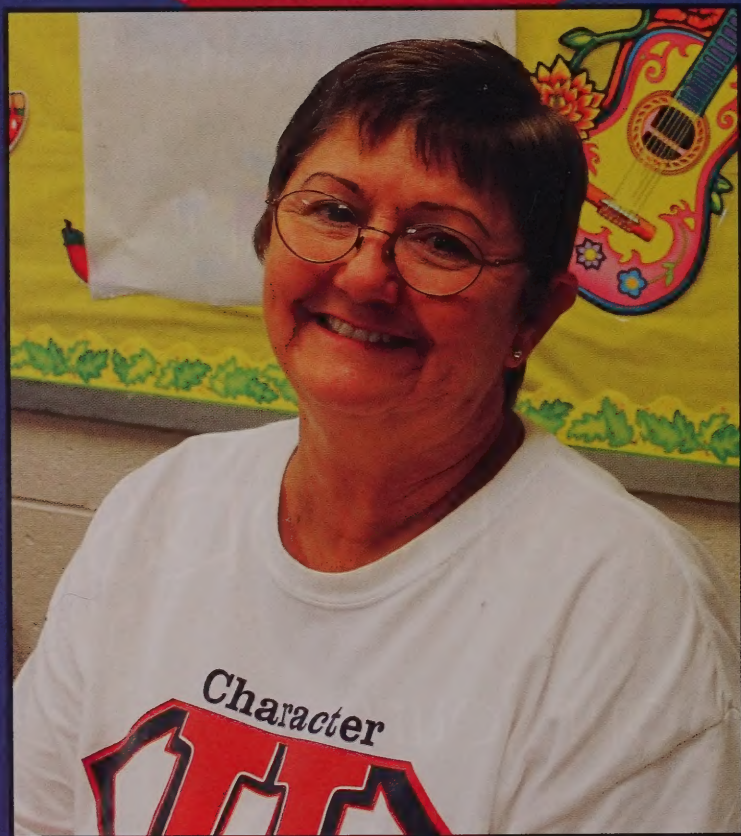

FOUR of the BEST!

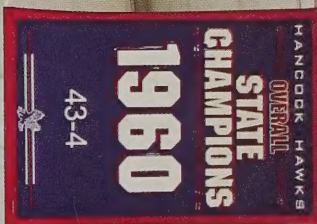

DEDICATION:

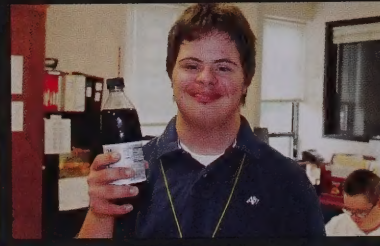

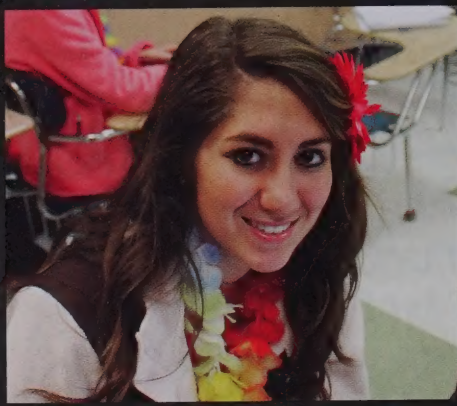

Ms. Rose Bush

Ms. Bush was selected as this year's dedication by the Hawk staff for her long-time commitment to education. Ms. Bush has won the respect of her students for her daily devotion to excellence and no-nonsense education. Ms. Bush graduated from Harrison Central in 1970 and from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1974. Ms. Bush earned a Masters degree from LSU in 1980. She began teaching in Moss Point in 1975 and began working at Hancock North Central in 1982. Ms. Bush has taught both English and Spanish at HHS. Ms. Bush gives the students here credit for her continued love of teaching. She said, "We have such good kids. Every now and then, one has growing pains, but overall they are so good." Congratulations Ms. Bush!

UNDERCLASSMEN

2013, 2014, 2015

Class of 2013

"Jiggy Juniors" thanks to everyone who participated in homecoming week and helping out with anything throughout the year, especially prom. We could have not accomplished anything without each and everyone of you participating and sharing ideas! For many, this year has been the best. Although, next year has to be better, after all it will be our last and we must leave a legacy. We have been through a lot of tragedies together as a class so everyone please be thankful for what you have and have a GREAT and SAFE summer. See your smiling faces in August when we are the big dogs on campus! Woot woot! Class of 2013 baby!

Class of 2014

Spirited Sophomores! Wow, what a fantastic two years it has been! Side by side, we've all studied hard, cheered at pep rallies, and grown into remarkable JUNIORS! As your student council, we were so proud to look into the bleachers and hear you all chanting during homecoming week UN-DE-FEA-TED! At least for the first few days anyway. With two years behind us and two more ahead, we still have so much to look forward to! Many more Friday night football games, our first prom, and yes - even graduation! We, the class officers and representatives, wouldn't want to share our next, and final, two years at HHS with anyone but our very own class of 2014! We love you all!

The Class of 2015

I hope this year is a great year for all and everyone tries their hardest to succeed. I think this has been a wonderful year and next year will be even better, because we now understand how the High School system works. I wish our Freshmen Class the best wishes, and more years to come. Hawk Pride!

Hancock Varsity Talons DANCE TEAM

Dance for those who cannot!
-Talons

We are the dancers. We twirl, leap, and spin. We jump, pirouette, and tap. We are the dancers. We feel pain and fear. We feel defeat and failure. Yet, we keep going. We smile. We practice. We perform. We have grace and beauty. We are brave and strong. We dance not for fame and glory. But for how we feel inside. Strife, talent, joy. Determination and beauty. We are the dancers.

Abigail Arcement

During her time at HHS, Abigail has been involved in numerous clubs and activities including Beta Club, National Honor Society, National English Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, Renaissance Club, History and Government Club, SADD, Volleyball (4 years), and Basketball. She was also a member of the All-Star Volleyball Team her junior year, and a member of the Volleyball Scholar Athlete Team for the past three years. Abigail has received many awards and achievements including being a National Merit Finalist, the senior volleyball team captain, a 2010 Volleyball State Champion, and the Wendy's High School Heisman. She also received the setting award for volleyball. She has received Academic Achievement Awards in Environmental Science, English I, Spanish II, English II, Chemistry I, Art I, English III, Pre-Calculus, Sociology, Trigonometry, and U.S. History. She has also been on the Superintendent's Honor Roll for the past four years. Her advice to underclassmen is find something that you enjoy doing, and do it as best as you can. Make every second count because four years is way shorter than it seems. Abigail plans to attend Auburn University and major in Pre-Med Biology and become a Pediatric Surgeon.

James Grafe

While at HHS, James has been active in Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Student Council, National Honor Society, National English Honor Society, and National Spanish Honor Society as well as Future Business Leaders of America, News Team, and Quiz Bowl. James is a member of the varsity soccer team. James has distinguished himself by being named HHS student of the month many times and being selected as the Coca-Cola student of the month. His leadership at HHS includes serving as Senior Class President, Beta Club President, Student Council Vice President, National Honor Society Treasurer, and Secretary of Mu Alpha Theta. James feels that what makes HHS special is the unique way it incorporates every aspect of the school into daily activities that promote learning and Hawk Pride. James plans to attend the University of Alabama and major in engineering. He hopes one day to teach math and physics.

Joseph Jelinski

While at HHS, Joseph has received the Academic Award for Theater, Extraordinary Hawk Award and World History AP Award, earned 2nd Place Karate at the 2011 Junior Olympics, lettered in Band, been named an International Honor Thespians, received 4th in the state for Male Solo Musical Theater, has played several major roles in HHS plays (one of the plays performed at the National Conference), and received the Musicianship Award from the Instrumentalist magazine. Joseph's activities include Literary Aspiring Writer Club, Beta Club, National Honor Society (publicity Chairman), Drama Club, National English Honor Society, Quiz Bowl Team, Forensics (Co-Capt.), Renaissance Club (leadership team), Science Club, History and Government Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Marching Band, and Concert Band. According to Joseph, what makes HHS special: "The teachers, hands down. No other people I know would spend an entire class going off on tangents, grade mountains of paperwork, listen sympathetically to complaints, work extra hours to improve the school, and STILL come in every day with a smile on their face." Joseph plans to attend USM and major in Biology. Joseph wants to be a genetic engineer, write a best-seller and to appear on Broadway.

Courtney Nutting

While at HHS, Courtney has been named Who's Who "Most Spirited" all four years, served as Varsity Cheerleading Captain, was named Varsity Cheerleading "Rookie of the Year", and served as FBLA President for 3 years. Her clubs and activities include the National Honor Society, Beta Club, National Spanish Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, Mu Alpha Theta, and Renaissance Club. Courtney feels that what makes HHS special is that everyone is related. Courtney plans to attend Texas A&M University and major in finance. Her goals for the future are to receive a master's degree and work as a financial analyst for a large corporation, live in Texas, marry rich, and then start a family.

Mallory Pullman

Mallory has distinguished herself at HHS by receiving the Art II Academic Award, First place winner in Pencil Drawing at 2011 Mississippi Beta Convention, and the Superintendent's List 9th-12th grade. Her clubs and activities include Student Council 9th-12th grade, Class Treasurer 9th-12th grade, National Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society, National English Honor Society, Beta Club, Renaissance, News Team, History and Government Club, Mu Alpha Theta, FCA, and Tennis Team 9th-12th grade. She has participated in art classes out of school for 9 years. Mallory feels that the knowledge and life lessons that the teachers provide is what makes HHS special. Mallory plans to attend the University of Mississippi and major in Pre-Pharmacy. Mallory plans to become a clinical pharmacist.

Melinda Pullman

Throughout high school, Melinda has been active in numerous clubs and activities. She has been the Class of 2012 secretary and student council representative for the past four years. She has served as a National English Honor Society Vice President and a leadership team member for Renaissance, while also being an active member in Beta Club, National Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society, HHS News Team, Hancock Tennis Team, Mu Alpha Theta, and History and Government Club. In addition to maintaining honor roll for the past 4 years, Melinda was recognized for academic achievement in Biology I, Art I, Art II, and English II Honors, and received 1st place in colored pencil drawing at the 2011 Mississippi State Beta Convention. Melinda has taken art classes at Karen Anne's School of Fine Art for nine years. Melinda has served her community by volunteering in the annual NASA/SSC Special Olympics and the MS Gulf Coast Marathon. She was also commissioned to paint a model of the J-2X engine for Pratt and Whitney Rocketdyne at Stennis Space Center. Melinda plans to attend Mississippi State University where she will pursue a degree in meteorology. In the future, Melinda wants to be a research meteorologist for a private industry or NASA. The friendly atmosphere that Hancock provides to its students by having fun activities, such as games during homecoming week, block parties, and pep rallies is what made HHS special for Melinda.

Logan Shiyou

During his time at HHS, Logan has been active in swimming, tennis and Beta Club. He is an accomplished swimmer. He has been a state finalist in swimming and is a school record holder. He has placed in competition at Beta convention and is a VFW essay contest winner. Logan's advice to the underclassmen is "Do not live a lie. Be true to yourself and what you want. Learn from your mistakes, but do not look at any obstacle as impossible to overcome. Enjoy life and live it to the fullest."

Grant Tingstrom

Mikey has been active in Beta Club, National Honor Society, National English Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, and Robotics. He regards advancing to the FTC (robotics) World Championship as his major accomplishment while at HHS. Mikey thinks that the wonderful teachers at HHS that make the day enjoyable is what makes HHS a special place. Mikey plans to attend the University of Southern Mississippi and major in computer science. He plans to get a concrete job and then obtain a pilot's license.

Anthony Vernaci III

Trey has been involved in Theatre and Beta Club as an officer. He has served on Student Council for 4 years and has participated in National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, News Team, Quiz Bowl, and Renaissance Club. Trey is well-known as our mascot, Hanc the Hawk. Trey was elected as State Beta Vice President and has twice been named ALL-American Mascot. Twice he has been a national qualifier for speech and debate and has been selected as the "Most Involved" for Who's Who for 3 years. Trey is Forensics Team Captain, Mr. HHS, Student Body Treasurer, an All-Star Cast medalist, a John W. Harris Leadership Award recipient, and an International Honors Thespian who has been on honor roll all four years at HHS. In 2011, Trey was named South Mississippi Living Magazine's Terrific Teen for September. Trey believes that the faculty and staff truly make HHS special. The faculty is made up of brilliant teachers that truly want their students to excel at everything they do.

Laura Wilson

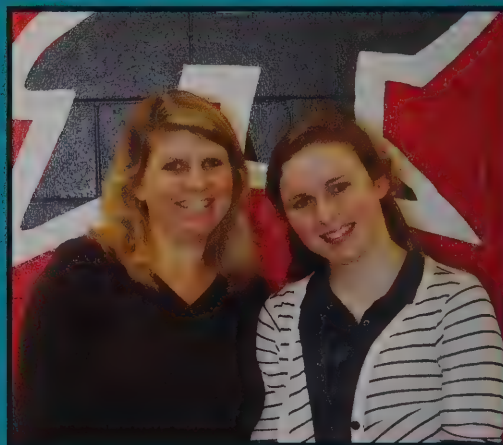

Laura has served on Student Council, Beta Club, National Honor Society, and as class vice president. Laura has been a member of the tennis team and is an IMPACT dance competition team member. Laura has been student of the month and was chosen as a Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership representative. Laura thinks the number of activities for everyone to be involved in is what makes HHS so special. Laura plans to attend Auburn University and major in ecological engineering. Her future goal is to work for the EPA.

I am so proud of you for everything, finishing so well in school and staying strong and faithful while I'm away. You are the best. I love you baby. Your Husband, Jared

In the chapters of the stages of one's life, we have days that effect our futures, like births, deaths, marriage and divorce. Our makeup of our personalities are the results of the emotional events that shape our future. How we learn to have positive results of the emotional experiences, will always help out in our future of ones well being. Good luck on all of your positive, future choices. I'm very proud of you on your present choices,
From your loving Dad, Phil

Samantha Moak

Dear my most beloved sister
It seems like yesterday we were arguing over something stupid. Now it is time for you to blast on out and begin life on your own. I know you will do your best at whatever you do. I'll always remember all of the stuff you've told me. I love you.
-Josh

Our Dearest Samantha
From a most precious little baby to a beautiful young woman, you're always cheerfully serving your family and others. You bring light into the room and you are such an encourager Samantha. How we admire your boldness and love for the Lord. We pray you continue to love the Lord and walk in His ways, obey His commands and hold fast to Him. He will take your right hand and help you in all things.
Love Mom & Dad

Samantha,
I can't believe you are a senior! Where has the time gone? You have grown into such a beautiful and bright young lady. We are so proud of all the accomplishments you have made. Congratulations!
We love you!
David, Crystal, Caleigh, Koley, & Kinley

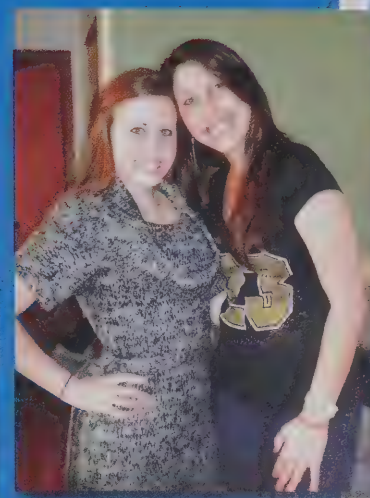

Samantha,
I can always remember you counting the days waiting on 2012 and it seemed so far away, but your year is finally here! It has been so much fun watching you grow from that curly headed toddler into a beautiful, responsible young woman. We are so blessed to have you in our lives. Always fight for what you want and never give up. You deserve nothing but the best. Good luck today and always.
Love,
Zach, Brittany, Kayleigh, & Bryson

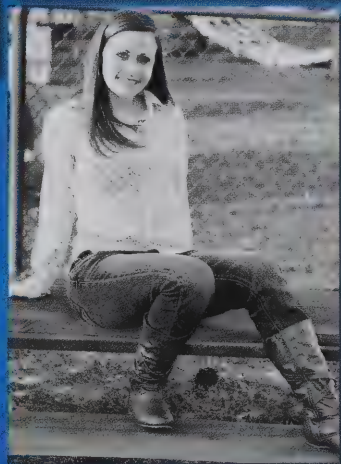

I am so glad that I met you! I don't know where I would be without you. Soon you're going to be off to college; even though you are a pain being with me, I can admit that I am going to miss you. I hope you reach your goals in life. I love you, Ruthie! -Ian

Sis, I'm so proud of you! I can't wait to get closer as the years go by and watch you unfold into the amazing woman I know you'll become! Have fun in college, they really are the best years of your life!
Love, Christina

Daddy's Little Girl
You grew so fast
Fueled with love
That will always last
So proud of you
And all you have done
Now off to college
And have some fun!
Love ya always,

Congratulations Ruthie, Here you are in your last year of high school, that you have been waiting for so long to graduate and go off to college, I am so proud of you and wish you the best of luck and health in your future!
Love always, Mom

Stavroula Ruth Beach

Jordan,
Your future begins now!
We are so proud of you. It is truly a blessing from God
to have you as our daughter.
You have brought us so much happiness and it has been a pleasure to be a part of your life. Never lose your kind heart and determination to succeed. Follow your dreams and live life to the fullest. Keep God in your life and remember we love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Morgan & William

As our relationship has grown over these past four years, you have grown so much as a person. The young girl I first met who often worried of the things to come has grown into a young woman who is consistently taking the steps needed to make all of her dreams come true.
I'm so happy we met and I can't wait to spend the rest of my life with YOU!

Love,
Chris

We are so Proud of you!

You've come so far and have such a Bright future to look forward to! May God direct your path and continuously Bless you!
All our love, Dad Mom & Caty :)

Jenna Gambino

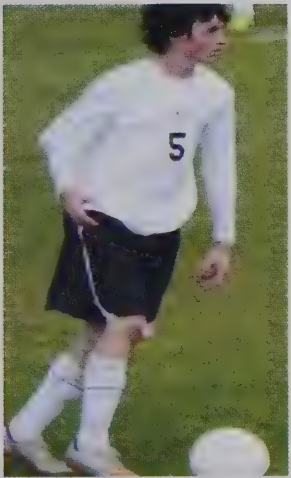

We have watched you with quiet amazement as you have become an intelligent, beautiful young lady. You have been HHS Junior Class Beauty and Prom Princess, Senior Class Most Beautiful and 2012 Homecoming Queen, a talented Dancer and an Honor Student. No one can argue that you are one special girl Jenna, but its what's in your heart and the way you treat others that makes you truly unforgettable. I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known. Be thankful for the friendships you've made, the life lessons you've learned, and all the experiences you had - the good as well as the bad. They've shaped who you are today. As the strains of Pomp and Circumstance guide you down the aisle towards that stage, Realize you're not just heading towards your high school graduation, you're stepping into your future. We Love You Jenna!

Congrats and great job! You have not had it easy, but when faced with adversity you triumphed. You are a strong person with a tender heart and that should never change. As you move forward, remember the things you have learned early in life and never be afraid to face new challenges. Most importantly, never lose sight of the Lord. Thank you for all of the memories, we cannot wait for the next chapter. "For I can do everything through Christ who gives me strength." Phil 4:13

We are very proud of you and love you, Uncle Jason, Nana, Elijah and Isaiah.

I am extremely proud of you and the accomplishments you have already made at school, and on the basketball court! But most importantly, I'm proud of the person you are. You have always been a very respectful and well mannered child. You not only maintained these qualities, but also polished them and made them shine brighter in you. You have had to face and overcome many undeserved obstacles in life. With all the trials and tribulations you endured you had plenty reasons to give up, but instead you used them as your personal stepping stones to success! Keep up the hard work and good luck on your journey. I have no doubt that you will be a star player. I love you with all my heart and soul. You make me proud to be a father.

My Granddaughter, My Joy,
Words cannot express what is in my heart. You have grown into such a beautiful young woman. I hope you take life's lessons and put them to practical use. Try to forgive those who might hurt you. I know you have your pride, but listen to their view point and try to see both sides. Walk softly when you are angry, try not to take offense, express what you are feeling, do what you believe in, and be bold and courageous. The world is far from perfect there is conflict and strife but you can still make a difference in how you live your life.

I feel blessed because I know the wonders you will experience, you are my granddaughter and I believe in you.

Precious Nikki, always know I love you Today, Tomorrow, and Always.
Gram Jackie

We are so proud of you, you have come so far in the 12 years of school. It seems like just a few months ago you graduated from Head Start...Now its high school. We have been so fortunate to ave you in our lives. With the ups and downs, the good and bad, you managed it well and it has made you a stronger and more independent woman, that we knew you would become. This will bring you far in life, just never forget to believe in yourself, and follow your dreams...Always.
Love, Mom, Gary, Austin & your Dad, Johnny

Remember all your special angels are watching over you each and every step of the way.

Where have all the years gone? Just yesterday was the most exciting day, when I held my lil' girl and rocked her in my arms. Now, you are all grown up and on your own. Having you as a granddaughter has brought more joyful times and proud moments than you will ever know. I have been very blessed to be so close to you all these years, and to watch you grow into the most beautiful, caring, young woman you are today. I am extremely proud of you and all that you have accomplished. I could not have asked for more. I know you will succeed in all that you do, just as you always have. Follow your heart always, Baleigh. May God bless you & guide you along the way. Just remember, MeMaw is always here for you. I love you so very much.

Thank you for always picking up my stuff and taking such good care of me.
Congratulations on graduating high school!
I love you very much!
Love, Brennan*

The day you were born our hearts were overwhelmed with joy. Seeing you and holding you for the first time was like no other moment in our lives. We've shared in all your firsts, from your first coos & giggles, to your first day of school, then on to high school. This begins a whole new chapter for us, a chapter of lasts. This last year of high school arrived in the blink of an eye. There are no words to express the pride we feel in our hearts for you. We've done our best in guiding you to become the beautiful, intelligent, young lady you are today. You have exceeded our expectations tenfold in who you are and in all you have accomplished. You've shown us the greatest love we have ever known, the unconditional love of a daughter. The joy you've brought us in your laughter, the compassion you've shown for others, and the maturity you've had in guiding Brennan as he grows are only a few of the many things we will cherish always. We look forward in sharing the many more firsts you will have in life. Continue in life in the same manner you always have and there's no doubt you will conquer every challenge you face and succeed in every goal you set. We couldn't be more proud of you, Baileigh. Trust God in all things, have Faith in all you do.

You are very special & loved dearly. I know you will succeed because you believe. -Love always, Nani

I am so honored to call you my granddaughter. My heart is filled with pride as you graduate high school. Wishing you great success & all the happiness in the world. Love you. -Love, Buddy

Your personality shines like a ray of light from Heaven and we are so blessed to have you as our great granddaughter. That contagious smile of yours has brightened each day. Life will bring you many challenges, but always remember to listen to your heart and keep your Faith in God. Wherever life brings you, may God bless you & watch over you. Know with each step how completely & unconditionally you are loved. You always make us proud & we love you. -Love, MawMaw & Papa

Living & loving life within the values you hold true has made you the amazing young woman you are today. You have worked extremely hard, stayed the course, and we couldn't be more proud of you. We are looking forward to seeing all your dreams come true. We will be here cheering you on! We love you much! -Love, Granny, Paw Paw, Gardie, Connie, Rick, Ashton, Destin, Scottie, Rhonda, Bryce & Chase

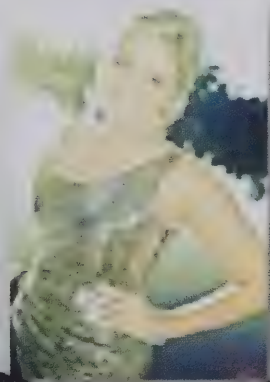

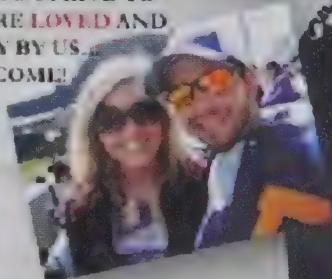

We have all been so richly blessed to share in your life. Push hard in life & never give up! -Love, Bev & Family, Belinda, Amanda, Alysha & Jordan

Life is like a mirror, what you put into it always comes back to you. So, pursue your dreams, dream big, take chances, believe in yourself & give it all you got, always! Thank you for all the wonderful memorable years that we will cherish forever. Smile often, laugh much, and love with all your heart! Congratulations, you did it! We love you! -Love, The Lohman's, Krasinda & Family, and Deidre & Family

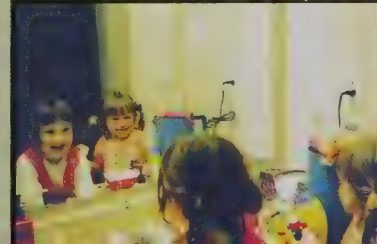

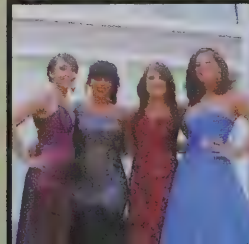

Keep that Sparkle!

Joseph Jelinski

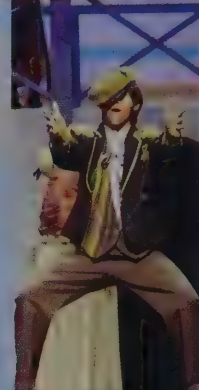

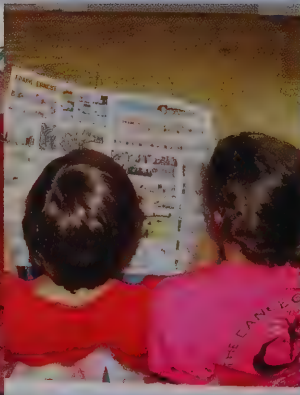

Years from now you may be remembered as "that quirky kid with the goofy laugh that used big words and walked everywhere reading a book or singing." But the truth is that when you were little you had speech problems and trouble reading. Then you discovered Harry Potter. And the THINKS YOU COULD THINK LINED UP TO GET LOOSE! Your unusual designs or way of looking at life often took first place or at least made us smile. Whether you were 12 performing a solo in Latin with the Biloxi High Show Choir, 13 performing in Oliver! at the Saenger, 14 playing sax in the HHS band, 15 bringing the "Cat" to life in Seussical, 16 earning 2nd place in the JR Olympics, or 17 recreating Poe's Raven at the Thespian Nationals, you have amazed us! You are no longer that little boy riding on his dad's shoulders. You are a high school graduate. However, this is not the end of the story where you put down the book with a satisfied sigh. It's many more pages that will make your heart race, bring a smile, and make you cry as you work your way, deliciously exhausted to the end, where you get to say, "Now, THAT WAS A GREAT STORY." On to the next chapter....

Oh, the thinks you can think
Think and wonder and dream-
Far and wide as you dare!

May your laughter be timeless, your imagination have no age, and your dreams live forever! Dad, Mom, Jessica, and Jamie

My little Girl, Don't cry for me. Daddy is watching over you. I am so proud of the person that you have become, sorry I couldn't be there for you during your high school years. I wish you all the best and I know you will do well throughout your life. But know that your daddy loves you and on your day of graduation I will be right there with you walking beside you and holding your hand when you receive your diploma. Keep your head up high, set your goals in life and achieve them. MAKE DADDY PROUD! I love you my little girl.

I am so proud of you babe I knew you could do it even after all the rough mornings with you trying to tell me how sick you were so you could miss school and come see me. LOL

To Cameren, our one and only son,
Congratulations on the completion of high school. This is only the first step on life's journey. This accomplishment is only proof that you have the tools and skills to navigate life's challenges. I can't believe how very fast 18 yrs has went by. We along with our family and friends have watched you grow into a man right before our eyes. We are happy to see you graduate, but at times often wish you were little again. Look toward a bright future and remember everything you want in life can be conquered. Always lead from the front and never be afraid to take what's yours. Life is only concerned with the people who can control it, so don't be afraid to reach out and grab it. Your Dad and I will always be here for you...

Alan Clay Bruce

My Dearest Alan Clay,
It seems like only yesterday you were sitting in my lap twirling curls as I read to you, "Brown bear, brown bear what do you see?" In the blink of an eye, you have outgrown my lap but not my heart, never my heart.

As you prepare to graduate, I can't help but think of your life's journey. In 18 short years, you have already experienced more than many men will ever know. I am so proud of how you handled life's winning and losing moments. As you keep on your journey, you will continue to explore the world, celebrate many successes, and face life's trials. To help you, I offer you this advice:

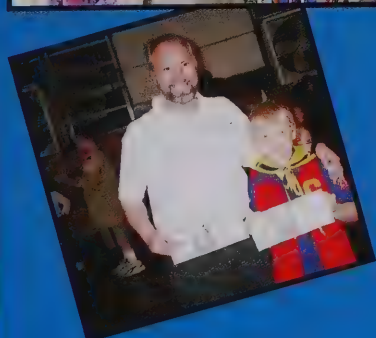

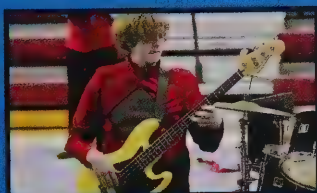

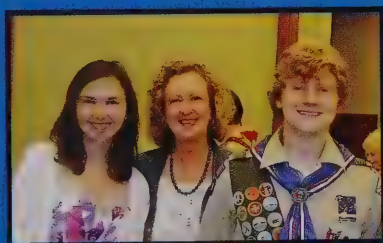

Be who you were meant to be;

Know that strength comes from resiliency, confidence, and standing for what you believe;

Know you are loved;

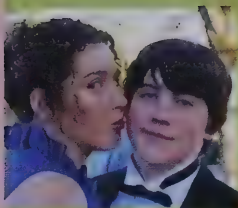

Be honest in all that you do;

And honor the name that was given to you. Congratulations! "...you're off to great places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So get on your way!"

Love you, Mom

The years have gone by so quickly, we blinked and you grew up on us. You are such an amazing girl that has a very bright future ahead. Remain true to yourself always and never settle for less than what you deserve. You are so smart and beautiful and so full of life. You have so much to look forward to and with a little luck and a lot of faith we know you will succeed in all of your endeavors. We certainly know that God has chosen a path for you and will guide you through life's journey ahead. Remember, no matter what you face in life; don't let go of God's hand. Thank you for all of the happiness you have brought into our lives over the years and along the way, but most of all for being "you."

With much love Mom and Dad

Trust in the Lord with all your heart.
And do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.

Necaise

Dearest Laney,
Words cannot express how proud we are of you and how much we love you. It has been a joy to watch you grow into the beautiful young woman you have become and we are so thankful God made you ours. Soon a new and exciting journey will begin for you and we pray your Faith will always be strong and will help guide you through your future decisions and circumstances and as you face the future, may you always know you are loved, prayed for, and believed in. You are a joy and a blessing! We are all so proud of you! Congratulations on your Graduation!
We love you deeply,

Dearest Cassie,
Congratulations! We are so proud of you! God put you in our life for many reasons; the most important was to learn of Him. It has been wonderful watching you grow into the beautiful young woman you have become and we know you will make an impact on this world however the Lord directs you. Now go forward and embrace the next phase of your life and always know you are cherished and loved. May God always be the driving force in your life; blessing all of your endeavors.
